Name _____

School Adventure

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. The mouse has a lot of excitement for learning new things. Do you think that is a good quality? Why or why not?

2. How does the story show that learning can happen both inside and outside the classroom?

3. If you could bring an animal to school for a day, which one would you choose and why?

4. What lesson do you think the mouse learns by the end of the book? How can we apply this lesson to our own school experiences?

© ReadingDuck.com