

Name _____

The Mystery of Fading Spring Colors

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. What motivated the kids to take action to solve the mystery of disappearing Springtime colors?
2. How do you think the kids' actions changed their community and the way people viewed environmental conservation?
3. In your opinion, why is it important to protect and preserve the colors of Spring and the natural environment?
4. What are some ways individuals and communities can help reduce pollution and protect the environment?

