

Name _____

The Legacy of Honor

Short Answer Key

1. Lily was inspired to create a memorial marker for Private Thomas Davis after discovering his love for playing the harmonica and learning about his life.
2. The Johnson family customized the markers to reflect the soldiers' personalities by including elements related to their interests, hobbies, and biographies.
3. When the Johnsons visited Private Davis's grave, they placed Lily's personalized marker beside it and paid their respects in silence.
4. The family gained a sense of connection to the soldiers they were honoring, brought them closer together, and instilled gratitude for the sacrifices made by soldiers throughout history.
5. The family's tradition was important to Lily because it allowed her to preserve the memory of fallen soldiers and honor their individual stories.

