Cassius' Plan

Short Answer Key

1. Cassius was jealous of Caesar because he believed he was just as important but was not given the same power.
2. He wrote fake letters pretending to be from Roman citizens, asking Brutus to protect Rome from Caesar.
3. Brutus was hesitant because he was friends with Caesar and did not want to betray him.
4. Brutus believed that stopping Caesar would protect Rome's republic and prevent one man from gaining too much power.
5. After Caesar was killed, the Roman people turned against the conspirators, and war broke out.
