

Name _____

The Grumpy Santa's Holiday Transformation

Short Answer Key

1. Bob was grumpy as a mall Santa because he had grown tired of the holiday cheer and the constant requests from children for toys and gifts.
2. Lily wished for Bob to be happy when she met him at the mall.
3. After Lily's heartfelt wish, Bob changed his attitude by greeting children with a warm smile, showing genuine interest in their wishes, and sharing stories about the North Pole.
4. Jingles the elf and Tinsel the reindeer were some of the characters that supported Bob's transformation into a happier Santa.
5. Bob gave Lily an extra special present—a heartfelt thank you for reminding him of the true meaning of the holiday season. It was significant because it symbolized his gratitude for Lily's simple yet profound wish.

