Fiesta Footsteps: A Cinco de Mayo Dance Dream

Short Answer Key

1. Isabella was afraid of performing in front of a large audience because it made her knees turn to jelly.
2. Senor Tacos supported Isabella by encouraging her with delicious tacos and wise words, such as "Dance with your heart, and your feet will follow!"
3. Isabella was inspired during her dance performance by seeing Don Quixote in the crowd balancing on his unicycle and hearing her abuela's proud cheers.
4. The quirky characters in Isabella's journey were Senor Tacos, Don Quixote, and Grandma Rosita. Senor Tacos encouraged her with tacos and wise words, Don Quixote brought laughter and inspiration, and Grandma Rosita provided support and tradition.
5. The most important lesson Isabella learned was to overcome her fear by dancing with her heart and believing in herself.
