

Name _____

A Harmonious Hanukkah Concert

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sophie was determined to find her missing violin because it held deep sentimental value, having been passed down through her family for generations. It was irreplaceable and represented a connection to her family's heritage.
2. The unplanned power outage at the school turned into an opportunity for Sophie, Rachel, and Jake because it challenged them to adapt and perform acoustically. This added a unique and captivating element to their concert, making it even more memorable.
3. Sophie, Rachel, and Jake's Hanukkah concert performance was magical because it conveyed the warmth and spirit of Hanukkah through their unplugged music. The soft, warm light of the Hanukkah candle created an intimate atmosphere that enhanced the beauty of their melodies.
4. Determination and the support of friends can help us overcome unexpected challenges by providing motivation, creative solutions, and emotional strength. With determination and a support system, we can face obstacles head-on and find ways to turn adversity into success.
