War and Home

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. (Varies) A student might say Amy changed the most because she stopped caring about riches, or Jo because she learned to help her family.
2. The war made life harder because fathers and sons were away, money was scarce, and families had to manage on their own.
3. (Varies) Some students might say they would have written like Jo, while others might say they would have helped at home in other ways.
4. The March sisters teach us that family, love, and teamwork help people get through difficult times.
