Shadowed Mind

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Responses may vary, but here are sample answers.)

1. Some might say yes, because doing it himself made the guilt stronger. Others might say no, because he still made the choice to kill.
2. His guilt makes him see ghosts, hear things that aren't there, and believe everyone is against him.
3. It shows that he is deeply disturbed, and his guilt is overwhelming him.
4. Some may argue he deserved his downfall because of his choices, while others may believe fate played a role in his destruction.
