

Name _____

The Grumpy Santa's Holiday Transformation

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Lily's simple wish for Bob to be happy had a profound impact on him by reminding him of the true meaning of the holiday season. It made him realize that being Santa was about spreading joy and kindness, not just giving gifts. This change in perspective transformed him into a happier Santa.
2. Bob's transformation into a happier Santa affected the mall visitors by creating a more cheerful holiday atmosphere. It made their visits more enjoyable and filled with holiday spirit. The Glitterville Mall became a place where families felt the joy of the season.
3. Playing Santa changed Bob's perspective by showing him that the holiday season was about spreading happiness and kindness. It made him appreciate the importance of bringing joy to others and being grateful for the simple things in life.
4. Answers may vary. Possible responses could include wishing for world peace, happiness for loved ones, or an end to hunger and homelessness during the holiday season. The choice of wish would depend on individual values and priorities.

