

Name _____

Unbreakable Bonds

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Responses may vary, but should include these ideas.)

1. The bond between humans and animals is special because it is built on love, trust, and companionship. Animals can be lifelong friends.
2. Some students may say they would risk their life to save Little Ann because of their strong bond, while others may feel it would be too dangerous.
3. The novel shows that animals feel love, loyalty, grief, and sacrifice, just like humans, making them more than just pets.
4. Students should describe their own experiences with pets or animals and how the relationship impacted them emotionally.
