

Name _____

Turkey Talk: Unveiling Thanksgiving's History

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was Emily's initial reaction when her pet turkey, Gobble, started talking to her?

- A) She was terrified and ran away.
- B) She didn't believe it was happening.
- C) She immediately started a conversation with Gobble.
- D) She thought it was a dream.

2. What did Gobble have to say about the history of Thanksgiving?

- A) He didn't know anything about it.
- B) He shared stories about the first Thanksgiving feast.
- C) He talked about his favorite Thanksgiving dishes.
- D) He discussed modern Thanksgiving traditions.

3. What did Gobble explain about the first Thanksgiving between the Pilgrims and Native Americans?

- A) It was a conflict between the two groups.
- B) The Pilgrims hosted a grand feast for the Native Americans.
- C) The Native Americans taught the Pilgrims how to build houses.
- D) The Pilgrims refused to share their food with the Native Americans.

4. Why did Emily decide to organize a special Thanksgiving celebration?

- A) To show off her talking turkey, Gobble.
- B) To teach her family about the history of Thanksgiving.
- C) To eat delicious Thanksgiving food.
- D) To have a party with her friends.

5. What message did Emily and Gobble want to share with others through their Thanksgiving celebration?

- A) The importance of eating a lot on Thanksgiving.
- B) The history of turkey farming in America.
- C) The unity and gratitude of the first Thanksgiving.
- D) The need for more holidays in the year.

