

Name _____

Chilling Journeys

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Geneva represent Victor's early life?
  - A) It is cold and lonely, like the Arctic
  - B) It is peaceful and happy, filled with family and friends
  - C) It is full of danger and fear
  - D) It is where Victor creates the creature

2. What does the wilderness represent for the creature?
  - A) A place where he learns but remains lonely
  - B) A warm and welcoming home
  - C) A city filled with people
  - D) A place where Victor teaches him science

3. Why is the Arctic an important setting in the story?
  - A) It is where Victor builds a new creature
  - B) It is where Victor first meets the creature
  - C) It is where the creature finds a family
  - D) It represents Victor's final journey and his sadness

4. How do the different settings in Frankenstein affect the mood of the story?
  - A) They make the story feel confusing
  - B) They help show emotions like happiness, fear, and regret
  - C) They only describe places without affecting the story
  - D) They make the story less interesting

5. What lesson do the settings in the story help teach?
  - A) Science is always dangerous
  - B) People should avoid traveling to cold places
  - C) The places in our lives can reflect our feelings and choices
  - D) Cities are safer than forests

