

Name _____

Magic and Mischief

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does J.K. Rowling include humor in the story?
 - a) To make the book feel less serious and more enjoyable
 - b) To make fun of the characters
 - c) To remove all the scary parts
 - d) To make magic seem less important

2. How do Fred and George Weasley add humor to the story?
 - a) By being the smartest students at Hogwarts
 - b) By playing pranks and making jokes
 - c) By helping Harry with his homework
 - d) By being serious and quiet

3. What is funny about Dumbledore's speech at the feast?
 - a) He tells a long and boring story
 - b) He makes up random silly words
 - c) He falls asleep in the middle of talking
 - d) He sings a song instead of speaking

4. How does Hermione's correction of Ron's spell add humor?
 - a) She makes fun of Harry instead
 - b) She says the spell wrong too
 - c) Her frustration with Ron makes the moment funny
 - d) She turns Ron into a toad by accident

5. What is the main way humor balances the darker themes in the book?
 - a) It makes the story too silly to take seriously
 - b) It makes Hogwarts seem like an ordinary school
 - c) It replaces the important lessons in the story
 - d) It helps readers enjoy the adventure while still feeling the danger

