

Name _____

Speech Battle

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Brutus say Caesar was dangerous?
 - a) Caesar was planning to leave Rome.
 - b) Caesar wanted to be a king and take away people's freedom.
 - c) Caesar was too weak to rule Rome.
 - d) Caesar had betrayed Brutus.

2. What strategy did Antony use in his speech?
 - a) He attacked Brutus directly.
 - b) He ignored the crowd's feelings.
 - c) He used sarcasm, showed Caesar's will, and made people feel sympathy.
 - d) He stayed silent and let the people decide.

3. How did Antony's speech change public opinion?
 - a) The people supported Brutus even more.
 - b) The people became angry at Caesar.
 - c) The people turned against the senators and started a riot.
 - d) The people ignored both speeches.

4. What did Antony show to make the crowd feel sympathy for Caesar?
 - a) Caesar's will and his bloody cloak.
 - b) A statue of Caesar.
 - c) A new law that Caesar had written.
 - d) A letter from Brutus.

5. What lesson does this scene teach about persuasion?
 - a) Logic always wins over emotion.
 - b) Words are not important in decision-making.
 - c) People do not care about speeches.
 - d) The way a message is delivered can change people's opinions.

