

Name _____

Three's Curse

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the first warning about the monkey's paw?
  - a) It would grant unlimited wishes.
  - b) It only worked during a full moon.
  - c) It had been lost for many years.
  - d) It would bring misfortune to those who used it.

2. What was the result of Mr. White's first wish?
  - a) The family became rich instantly.
  - b) Herbert died in an accident, and the family received two hundred pounds.
  - c) The monkey's paw disappeared.
  - d) Nothing happened.

3. What does the knocking at the door after the second wish symbolize?
  - a) That Herbert may have returned in a frightening form.
  - b) That the family will receive more money.
  - c) That the wish did not work.
  - d) That another visitor has arrived to warn them.

4. Why does Mr. White use the third wish?
  - a) He wants to wish for more money.
  - b) He wishes for the monkey's paw to disappear.
  - c) He fears what might be on the other side of the door.
  - d) He wants to bring Herbert back forever.

5. What does the number three symbolize in the story?
  - a) The idea that fate cannot be changed without consequences.
  - b) Good luck and happiness.
  - c) A magical spell that grants endless wishes.
  - d) The number of times the paw can be used before disappearing.

