

Name _____

Tough Choices

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Dally define being "tough"?
 - a) Being strong and fearless, never showing emotion
 - b) Being kind and caring to others
 - c) Running away from problems
 - d) Staying home and avoiding fights

2. What does Johnny learn about toughness?
 - a) It means fighting whenever possible
 - b) It means saving others, even when it's dangerous
 - c) It means ignoring problems
 - d) It means acting just like Dally

3. Why does Ponyboy struggle with the idea of being tough?
 - a) He is naturally violent and enjoys fights
 - b) He thinks toughness means becoming cold and unfeeling
 - c) He is exactly like Dally and Johnny
 - d) He never experiences hardship

4. How does Johnny prove his toughness?
 - a) He runs away from home
 - b) He refuses to help the children in the church fire
 - c) He risks his life to save others
 - d) He decides to fight against the Socs

5. What lesson does Ponyboy learn about being tough?
 - a) That he should stop reading and watching sunsets
 - b) That fighting is the only way to survive
 - c) That he should become like Dally
 - d) That real strength comes from staying true to himself

