

Name _____

The Groundhog Guardians: Defenders of Earth

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In the story, groundhogs are portrayed as unlikely heroes. Can you think of other examples in literature or movies where unexpected or unconventional heroes save the day? How does the portrayal of such heroes impact the story?
2. The story emphasizes the power of collaboration between species. Can you think of real-world situations where collaboration between different groups or nations has been essential to solve a problem or overcome a crisis?
3. How do you think the bond between humans and groundhogs would evolve after the Zogron invasion? What other challenges or adventures might they face together in the future?
4. If you were faced with an unusual and unexpected threat to your community or the planet, what skills or unique qualities do you think you and your friends could bring to the table to help defend against it?

