

Name _____

Eleanor Roosevelt: The First Lady of Advocacy and Compassion

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe Eleanor Roosevelt's role as First Lady and how she used her position to advocate for important causes.
2. Explain the significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and Eleanor Roosevelt's role in its creation.
3. Discuss the impact of Eleanor Roosevelt's daily newspaper column, "My Day," on connecting with the American people and sharing her views on important issues.
4. How did Eleanor Roosevelt's personal challenges and experiences shape her advocacy work and her dedication to social justice?

