

Name _____

John Henry's Mountain Questions

1. What was John Henry's goal in the story?

- (A) To build a new steam drill
- (B) To dig a tunnel faster than the steam drill
- (C) To climb the highest mountain
- (D) To build a house for the crowd

2. What did John Henry say was more important than a machine?

- (A) Speed
- (B) Power
- (C) Heart
- (D) Money

3. How did John Henry keep his rhythm while working?

- (A) By singing a song
- (B) By clapping his hands
- (C) By watching the steam drill
- (D) By resting every hour

4. Why did the steam drill stop working?

- (A) It overheated from the strain
- (B) It ran out of fuel
- (C) It broke a part
- (D) The crowd turned it off

5. What lesson does John Henry teach at the end of the story?

- (A) Machines are better than people
- (B) Determination and heart can overcome challenges
- (C) Working alone is always best
- (D) It's better to give up when things get tough

