

Identifying Characters

Characters are the subjects of the story. They are who the story is about. People, animals, or even anthropomorphized objects can be characters.

DIRECTIONS: Read the story. Who are the characters? Draw their pictures. Write their names. Describe what the characters do in the story and what happens to them.

Name: _____

Name: _____

