

Identifying Settings

The setting of a story is when and where the story takes place.

DIRECTIONS: Read the story. Describe when and where the story takes place. Draw a picture that represents when the story takes place. Draw a picture of where the story takes place.

When does the story take place?

---

---

---

---

A large, empty rectangular box intended for drawing a picture that represents when the story takes place.

Where does the story take place?

---

---

---

---

A large, empty rectangular box intended for drawing a picture of where the story takes place.