

Name _____ Determiners

Determiners

Determiners come at the beginning of a noun phrase. They say whether a noun is specific or general. The specific determiners are:

ARTICLES	POSSESSIVES		DEMONSTRATIVES
the	my	its	this
	your	our	that
INTERROGATIVES	his	their	these which	her	whose	those

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with a specific determiner. More than one answer may be possible. Choose a word that makes sense.

1. _____ day has been awesome.
2. I have never seen _____ cat in this neighborhood.
3. _____ jacket is that in the floor?
4. _____ floor of the garage did we park on?
5. Jonah asked _____ friend for a favor.
6. Will you see if _____ father can build the treehouse?
7. _____ pearls once belonged to my grandmother.

