

Latin Roots

Directions: Read the clues. Look for the word parts that are the bold-faced words have in common. Fill in the blanks with the Latin roots.

1. Latin root for swallow. You devour food when you're hungry. You're voracious if you have a big appetite. An omnivore eats meat and plants.

Latin root for swallow is

3. Latin root for common. To share something previously secret is to divulge it. Someone lacking in refinement is vulgar. To promulgate something means to officially announce it.

Latin root for common is

2. Latin root for way. You deviate when you go a different way. Something easily grasped is obvious. Via means by way of.

Latin root for way is

4. Latin root for wine. Grapes for wine are grown in a vineyard. Something that resembles a vin is called vinous. A vintner is someone who makes wine.

Latin root for wine is
