

Name _____

The Swan Lake Adventure

In the peaceful village of Swanton, there was a beautiful lake known as Swan Lake. The lake was famous for its graceful swans that glided smoothly across the water. Every summer, the children of Swanton loved to visit the lake and watch the swans swim.

One sunny day, twins Sarah and Sam decided to go on an adventure around Swan Lake. They packed a picnic, grabbed their swimsuits, and set off for a day of fun. As they arrived at the lake, they noticed something unusual. A small swan was struggling to swim because its wing was tangled in some weeds.

"Oh no! We need to help that swan," said Sarah.

Sam nodded in agreement. "Let's be careful and try not to scare it."

The twins carefully waded into the water and swam towards the swan. When they reached the struggling bird, Sarah gently held it while Sam untangled the weeds from its wing. The swan looked at them with grateful eyes and swam away, its wing now free.

Feeling proud of their good deed, Sarah and Sam decided to explore more of the lake. They swam to a small island in the middle of Swan Lake. On the island, they found a hidden swing hanging from a tall tree. The swing swayed gently in the breeze, inviting them to take a ride.

"This is amazing!" Sam exclaimed as he took the first turn on the swing. He swung high over the water, feeling the wind rush past him.

Sarah took her turn next, and they both laughed and enjoyed the hidden treasure they had discovered. After a while, they sat down for their picnic and watched the swans glide gracefully across the lake.

As the sun began to set, the twins swam back to the shore. They were tired but happy after their adventurous day. "Today was the best day ever," Sarah said with a smile.

Sam agreed. "We helped a swan, found a hidden swing, and had a lot of fun. I can't wait to tell everyone about our Swan Lake adventure."

They packed up their things and walked home, feeling grateful for the special day they had shared at Swan Lake.

