A Day at the Bug Park

Tom and his dog, Max, went to the bug park. The bug park was fun and full of bugs. Tom saw a big bug hop. It was a fat bug with red dots. Max saw a bug dig in the mud. The bug was wet and had a lot of legs.

Tom and Max went to the bug pit. There was a big net over the pit. Tom put his hand in the pit and felt a bug tickle his hand. Max did not want to put his paw in the pit. He just wagged his tail and sat.

Next, they went to the bug shop. Tom got a big red hat with a bug on it. Max got a toy bug that could zip and zap. They had so much fun at the bug park. Tom and Max ran home to tell Mom and Dad about their fun day.
