The Magic Muffin Mix-Up

Once upon a time, in a small, sunny village, there lived a clever fox named Max and a chubby rabbit named Tilly. They were best friends and loved to bake together. One day, they decided to make muffins.

Max and Tilly mixed up the batter in a big, silver bowl. Max added eggs, and Tilly added milk. They both stirred and stirred. But something strange happened. The batter began to bubble and glow!

"Wow, look at that!" said Max. "It must be magic!"

Suddenly, the muffins began to grow wings and fly around the kitchen. Max and Tilly giggled and chased the flying muffins. One muffin landed on Max's nose, and another on Tilly's ear. They laughed and laughed until they were tired.

"That was the best muffin mix-up ever!" said Tilly.

Max nodded. "Let's do it again tomorrow!"
