

Name _____

The Adventure of the Brave Sloth

In a dense jungle lived a brave sloth named Seth. Seth was not like other sloths who moved slowly and slept all day. He loved going on thrilling adventures and discovering new things. His best friend, a wise old moth named Ruth, often joined him on these quests.

One day, Seth and Ruth heard about a hidden waterfall deep in the jungle. This waterfall was said to have magical properties and could grant wishes to those who found it. They decided to set off on a journey to find this legendary waterfall.

The path through the jungle was thick with vines and bushes. Seth used his strong claws to clear the way, and Ruth fluttered ahead, scouting the path. They came across a river with a fast current. Seth built a sturdy raft using thick branches and vines, and they floated across the river safely.

As they ventured further, they encountered a giant python blocking their path. Ruth, with her wise thoughts, suggested they use a decoy to distract the python. They crafted a decoy from leaves and twigs and placed it on a nearby rock. The python slithered towards the decoy, allowing Seth and Ruth to sneak past.

Finally, they reached a steep hill. Seth climbed with all his strength, and Ruth encouraged him from above. At the top of the hill, they saw the hidden waterfall cascading down into a clear, sparkling pool. Seth and Ruth stood in awe of the breathtaking sight.

Seth made a wish for the jungle to always be safe and prosperous. The waterfall glowed, and a gentle breeze rustled through the trees, as if acknowledging his wish. Seth and Ruth returned to their home with hearts full of joy, knowing they had achieved something incredible.

From that day on, Seth the sloth and Ruth the moth were celebrated as heroes in the jungle. They continued to go on many more adventures, always protecting their beloved home.

