The Friendly Fireflies

In the magical land of Glowville, where the moon shines bright and the stars twinkle all night, there lived a group of friendly fireflies.

These fireflies had a special talent - they could light up the sky with their glowing tails!

One day, as they danced around the shimmering pond, they spotted something unusual. It was a shiny treasure chest hidden beneath a bush! The fireflies were curious and decided to investigate.

As the fireflies gathered around the treasure chest, they noticed that it was locked tight. But they didn't give up! Using their glowing tails, they illuminated the lock and found a tiny keyhole.

With a little teamwork and a lot of determination, they managed to unlock the chest. To their amazement, it was filled with sparkling jewels and golden coins! The fireflies cheered with joy, knowing that they had discovered a treasure beyond their wildest dreams.
