Silly Silent Safari

In the vast jungle, the sun was setting behind the palm trees. An eagle flew high above the calm lake, searching for dinner.

In a nearby grove, a moose was munching on the moist grass. The shepherd led his flock to a lush hill. A wandering calf paused to sniff a colorful flower. A turtle slowly crawled along a narrow trail. The owl hooted softly from a tall elm tree. The salmon leaped out of the clear water with grace. At twilight, the jungle became a quiet realm filled with hidden wonders.
