

Name _____

My Day with Dr. King

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the significance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech and its impact on the child in the story. How did this experience shape the child's understanding of equality and freedom?
2. Imagine you were the child in the story. How would attending Dr. King's speech at a young age influence your beliefs and actions as you grew older? Explain the values and principles you would carry with you.
3. Explore the theme of unity and hope in the story. How did the child and their father experience a sense of unity with the crowd, and why was this important in the context of Dr. King's message?
4. Discuss the importance of passing down values and life lessons from one generation to the next, as demonstrated by the child's father in the story. How can stories and experiences like these help shape future generations?

