The Giant Cookie

Lila loved baking with her dad. One Saturday, they decided to bake a giant cookie. "Let's make it as big as a pizza!" Lila said, giggling. They mixed the dough, added chocolate chips, and carefully spread it on the pan. When they opened the oven, the cookie smelled amazing! But suddenly, the cookie started growing... and growing! "Uh-oh!" Dad said as it puffed up and pressed against the oven door. "We've made a cookie monster!" Lila laughed. They cut pieces from the giant cookie and shared it with their neighbors. "Best cookie ever!" everyone cheered.
