

ANSWERS

1. The narrator is a character in the story. The reader only knows what the character does, says, sees, feels, or thinks.
2. The narrator is not a character in the story, but tells the story from the point of view of one character. The reader only knows what that character does, says, sees, feels, or thinks.
3. The narrator is not a character in the story, and the reader can know what all the characters do, say, see, feel, or think.
4. The narrator is not a character in the story. The narrator (and the reader) can not see into the minds of any of the characters; they only know what the characters say and do.
