

Name _____

The Golden Years Friendship Club

Short Answer Key

1. The club members enjoyed activities such as cooking lessons, painting, playing musical instruments, and ballroom dancing during their meetings.
2. The club members celebrated each other's milestones by organizing outings, sharing stories, and throwing a "Golden Years Talent Show."
3. George taught the club members ballroom dancing, which added fun and liveliness to their meetings and gatherings.
4. The club demonstrated the importance of friendship and community by supporting Martha during her health scare with visits, cards, and homemade meals.
5. In the context of the story, "Golden Years" refers to the retirement years of the seniors, which are often considered a special and valuable period of life.

