

Name _____

The Pumpkin's Quest for Wholeness

Short Answer Key

1. Pip came to life when it rolled off its vine and found itself missing arms, legs, and a mouth.
2. The squirrel's acorns were too small, and the owl's leaves weren't sturdy enough to serve as Pip's missing parts.
3. After Clara's help, Pip looked like a whimsical jack-o'-lantern with a carrot for a nose, twigs for arms, and a wide, toothy grin made from corn kernels. Pip felt complete.
4. Pip learned lessons about friendship, perseverance, and the importance of accepting oneself and embracing differences.
5. Pip's return to the pumpkin patch brought laughter and acceptance to the pumpkin family, celebrating the uniqueness of each pumpkin.
