

Name _____

W.E.B. Du Bois: Paving the Way for Equality

Short Answer Key

1. W.E.B. Du Bois co-founded the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), which aimed to fight for equal rights and end racial discrimination.
2. A Ph.D. is a very advanced academic degree that shows expertise in a specific field. It is significant that Du Bois earned one because he was the first African American to do so, breaking barriers and proving his intellectual capabilities.
3. Du Bois believed that education was key to breaking the cycle of poverty and discrimination, as it empowered individuals with knowledge and skills to improve their lives.
4. Du Bois faced racism and discrimination throughout his life, which made it challenging for him to achieve his goals and advocate for civil rights effectively.
5. W.E.B. Du Bois is considered significant in history because he played a crucial role in advancing civil rights and equality for African Americans through his activism, writings, and co-founding of the NAACP.

