

Name _____

Chilling Journeys

Short Answer Key

1. Geneva is peaceful and full of love when Victor is young, showing his happy childhood.
2. The creature lives in the wilderness because he has nowhere else to go and watches people from afar.
3. The Arctic is cold and empty, just like Victor's feelings of loss and hopelessness.
4. Shelley chose cold and lonely places to reflect the sadness and isolation in the story.
5. The settings help show emotions, like happiness in Geneva and loneliness in the Arctic.

