

Name _____

Speech Battle

Short Answer Key

1. Brutus believed that Caesar was too ambitious and would become a king, taking away Rome's freedom.
2. Antony repeated "Brutus is an honorable man" but said it in a way that made people question if Brutus was truly honorable.
3. He wanted the people to see that Caesar cared for them and had left them money and land.
4. The people became angry at the senators, rioted, and turned against Brutus and Cassius.
5. He pointed to the places where Caesar was stabbed and showed the crowd his bloody cloak.

