

Name _____

Redefining Success

Short Answer Key

1. She wanted to travel the world, live by the sea, and make the world more beautiful.
2. She did not focus on money or fame but instead on spreading kindness and beauty.
3. She saw how flowers could bring happiness and make places look more alive.
4. They learned that small acts can make the world better, and they found their own ways to help.
5. Small actions can inspire others, grow over time, and create lasting change.

