

Name _____

The Enchanted Legacy of Merryville

Short Answer Key

1. The characters of Jingle, Tinsel, and Carol were the caretakers of Merryville. Jingle was a mischievous elf, Tinsel was a talking snowman with a sense of humor, and Carol was a friendly reindeer who loved to sing Christmas carols. They added charm and magic to Merryville.
2. The Petersons carried on Mr. Merry's legacy by restoring Merryville, spreading holiday cheer, and continuing to care for the village, ensuring that it remained a place where the magic of Christmas thrived all year.
3. The experience of spending Christmas in Merryville changed the Peterson family's perspective on the holiday season by teaching them the importance of spreading joy and love to others. They learned that the true meaning of Christmas goes beyond gifts and decorations.
4. Mr. Merry appeared to the Petersons on Christmas Eve, and his visit was significant because it marked the revival of Merryville through the family's dedication to spreading holiday cheer.
5. The Petersons learned about the true meaning of Christmas during their time in Merryville by experiencing the joy and love that comes from sharing and dedicating themselves to the holiday spirit.

