

Name _____

Mysterious Attraction

Short Answer Key

1. People often want what they cannot have, and Edward's warning makes him seem even more mysterious.
2. Bella is brave, curious, and open-minded because she does not run away from Edward's secret.
3. Like Bella, people in real life are often curious about things they do not understand, such as space, the ocean, or history.
4. When something is forbidden, it feels special or exciting because it is not easily available.
5. Twilight shows that love can be thrilling, but also dangerous when there are risks involved, like Edward's vampire nature.
