

Name _____

Chilling Journeys

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The peaceful settings show happiness, while the cold and dark settings reflect fear and sadness.
2. If the story took place in one location, the reader might not feel the changes in emotion as strongly.
3. If the creature lived in a city, he might have learned more about people but still faced rejection.
4. Different settings help us understand how characters feel and what challenges they face.

