

Name _____

Dry Truth

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Green Lake look like before it dried up?
 - a) It was always a desert
 - b) It was full of water and life
 - c) It was a snowy mountain
 - d) It was covered in buildings

2. What caused Green Lake to dry up?
 - a) A natural drought
 - b) Stanley's curse
 - c) The Warden drained the water
 - d) The town's cruelty and injustice

3. How does the dried-up lake symbolize the justice system?
 - a) It shows that justice is strong and fair
 - b) It represents how the justice system is broken and unfair
 - c) It proves that only guilty people are punished
 - d) It is not connected to justice at all

4. What event marks a turning point in the story and brings hope?
 - a) Stanley and Zero climb the mountain and find water
 - b) The Warden finds the treasure
 - c) The boys at Camp Green Lake get new shovels
 - d) The lake turns into a beach

5. What happens at the end of the novel that shows change?
 - a) The lake stays dry forever
 - b) The Warden becomes the new sheriff
 - c) It finally rains at Camp Green Lake
 - d) Stanley is sent back to the camp

