

Name _____

The Changing Crowd

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the word "fickle" mean in the passage?
 - a) Easily changed or swayed
 - b) Loyal and unchanging
 - c) Strong and determined
 - d) Angry and violent

2. Why did the Roman people celebrate Caesar at the beginning of the play?
 - a) He gave them food and land.
 - b) He won a battle against Pompey.
 - c) He helped them build a new city.
 - d) He promised to make them rich.

3. How did Brutus convince the people to support Caesar's assassination?
 - a) He ordered the soldiers to make them agree.
 - b) He made them promise to support him.
 - c) He gave them money and land.
 - d) He told them Caesar was too ambitious and wanted to take away their freedom.

4. What did Mark Antony use to turn the people against Brutus?
 - a) A statue of Caesar
 - b) A speech that made them feel sympathy for Caesar
 - c) A new law against the senators
 - d) A letter from Brutus admitting he was wrong

5. What does this passage suggest about political power?
 - a) It is permanent and cannot be changed.
 - b) It is decided by the strongest leaders.
 - c) It can change quickly based on persuasion.
 - d) It is never influenced by the people.

