

Name _____

Love and Choices

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does Meg learn about love and marriage?
  - a) That wealth is the most important part of marriage
  - b) That she should marry someone famous
  - c) That she should never get married
  - d) That true love matters more than money

2. Why does Jo turn down Laurie's proposal?
  - a) She does not love him romantically
  - b) She is in love with someone else
  - c) She does not want to get married at all
  - d) Laurie is not kind to her

3. What does Jo's marriage to Professor Bhaer show about love?
  - a) That friendship is more important than marriage
  - b) That love should be based on shared values and respect
  - c) That women should marry only for wealth
  - d) That Jo regrets her decision

4. Why does Amy decide to marry Laurie?
  - a) She wants to become rich and famous
  - b) She believes love and financial stability are both important
  - c) She is trying to make Jo jealous
  - d) She wants to follow Meg's example

5. What is the main message of this passage?
  - a) Marriage is the only way for women to be happy
  - b) Women should marry for money instead of love
  - c) Every woman should choose her own path in love and life
  - d) All marriages should be the same

