

Name _____

The Book Swap Adventure

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think the friends' love for reading and their strong friendship played a role in the magic that brought the stories to life?
2. If you had the opportunity to swap your favorite book with a friend and experience the story in real life, which book would you choose and why?
3. How do you think the friends' experiences in different book-inspired worlds influenced their understanding of each other and their own lives?
4. What lessons do you think the friends learned from their book-swapping adventure, and how did those lessons impact their future adventures in the world of books?

