The Lighthouse Ghost Mystery

Short Answer Key

1. Captain Jack investigated the mysterious voice because he couldn't sleep, and Sailor was barking at it, so he wanted to find out what was causing the strange sounds.
2. Captain Jack found a tattered journal in the old chest, and it contained entries about a hidden treasure on the island, which eventually led him to uncover the truth about the lost sailor.
3. Captain Jack helped the lost sailor find peace by burying the sailor's remains in a proper grave and used the treasure to repair the lighthouse, ensuring it could guide ships safely. The treasure served as a tribute to the sailor's memory.
4. The brighter shining lighthouse symbolizes that peace has been restored to the lost sailor's spirit, and it signifies that Captain Jack and Sailor have successfully solved the mystery.
5. The journal revealed that a treasure was hidden on the island, which was a key element in the story's plot.
