Pilgrim Pranksgiving

Short Answer Key

1. The Pilgrims dressed as wild turkeys with oversized beaks and feathers sticking out in all directions.
2. During the turkey chase, they raced around in a chaotic and uproarious game of tag.
3. They found it amusing because the costumes were comical, and the unexpected hilarity brought joy to the celebration.
4. The "Pilgrim Pranksgiving" tradition reminded everyone that Thanksgiving was not just about food but also about sharing laughter and building lasting friendships.
5. The Native Americans decided to join the fun because they realized that it was all in good spirit and a way to bond with the Pilgrims.
