Greedy Mistakes

Short Answer Key

1. The Once-ler kept cutting down Truffula Trees to make money, ignoring the damage he was causing to the environment.
2. The Bar-ba-loots lost their food, the Swomee-Swans couldn't breathe, and the Humming-Fish had to leave because their water was polluted.
3. The Once-ler was focused on making money and didn't think about the long-term effects of his actions.
4. He realizes that his greed led to the destruction of the forest and the loss of his business.
5. He gives the last Truffula seed to a child, hoping they will plant it and bring the forest back.
