

Name _____

Breaking Traditions

Short Answer Key

1. Bella is quiet, independent, and makes her own choices, unlike many traditional female characters who are always cheerful or in need of help.
2. Bella is often in danger, and Edward frequently rescues her, making her seem like a character who needs saving.
3. Bella chooses to be with Edward despite the risks, and she actively seeks out the truth about vampires instead of waiting for answers.
4. Edward believes Bella is fragile and that his vampire strength could hurt her, so he tries to keep her safe.
5. Bella is strong because she makes bold choices, but she is also vulnerable because she depends on Edward in many situations.
